Journal of Dharma

is published with the help of a team of scholars from different countries who are specialized in various religious, cultural and philosophical traditions.

It intends:

- to discuss the problems related to the ultimate concerns of humans inspired by the spirit active in the World Religions,
- to serve as a forum for the exchange of ideas and experiences regarding the approaches and methods to the problems related to the religious quest of humans,
- to encourage research in inter-religious studies and dialogue,
- to help shape the religious outlook of men and women enabling them to live a more authentic religious life,
- to emphasize the need for mutual understanding and dialogue between different religious traditions of the world.
